

Introduction to Finding Grants and Proposal Writing for Rural Healthcare

A Wisconsin Office of Rural Health Workshop

University of Wisconsin-Superior Campus

Wednesday & Thursday

July 18 & 19, 2012

Join us for this complimentary workshop sponsored by the Office of Rural Health, in conjunction with University of Wisconsin Superior's Center for Continuing Education. This is a unique opportunity for rural hospitals, clinics and EMS to explore grant funding sources and learn the art and science of proposal writing. On the first day of this free, two day event (you can attend either or both days) University librarians will introduce participants to the Foundation Directory and other online grant resources. You will have the opportunity to search on your own for project funding. On day two Su Neuhauser will lead a hands-on workshop on grant proposal writing, with special emphasis on developing and measuring outcomes. Ms. Neuhauser has extensive experience in non-profit grant research, proposal planning and writing and program evaluation. Whether you attend one or both days, this is an opportunity to improve your ability to secure grant funding for your organization. We encourage you to come with project ideas.

Questions, contact:

Kevin Jacobson

WI-ORH

608-261-1888

kmjacobson2@wisc.edu

Wednesday, July 18

Jim Dan Hill Library, 907 N. 19th St, 2nd Floor

Connie Moeller and Ella Cross, UW-Superior librarians, will provide an overview of funding resources and lead participants through a demonstration of online, searchable databases. In the afternoon, participants will be able to search independently for funding sources.

8:30 Registration; Continental breakfast

9:00 Introduction to Finding Grants

11:00 Demonstration and hands-on practice using online databases

12:00 Lunch (provided)

You may use the library grant resources until 3pm.

Thursday, July 19

Yellowjacket Student Union, 1605 Catlin Ave, Rm YU 204

Su Neuhauser will lead this interactive workshop on proposal writing.

8:30 Registration; Continental breakfast

9:00 Core Components of Proposals & Writing Style

12:00 Lunch (provided)

12:45 Importance of Writing Good Goals and Objectives

Your day will conclude by 3:30pm.

You may register for either or both days. Registration is free, but seating is limited. You may register up to two people from your organization for July 18, Introduction to Grant Seeking; if two people attend, they will likely share a computer. Multiple people from your organization may attend July 19 for Proposal Writing for Rural Healthcare. Each person must register separately, for each day. Complete the online registration by July 12. Access the online registration here: www.surveymonkey.com/s/July2012WI-ORHGrantWorkshops.

Lunch is included on both days. Directions and a campus map are available here. The Library is HLIB on the map and the Union is YU. Your registration confirmation will include a parking pass that will allow you to park near the Library and Yellowjacket Union.