

Program descriptions

Emergency Medical Services in Wisconsin

Emergency Medical Services (EMS) provide critical out-of-hospital medical care to thousands of people in Wisconsin every day.

License Levels and Scope of Practice

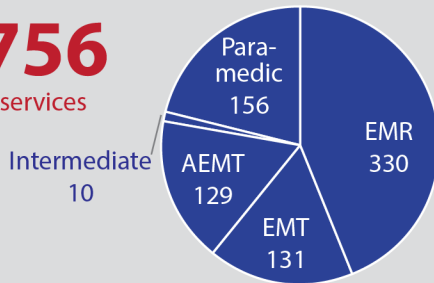

- Paramedic
- Intermediate
- Advanced EMT
- Emergency Medical Technician
- Emergency Medical Responder

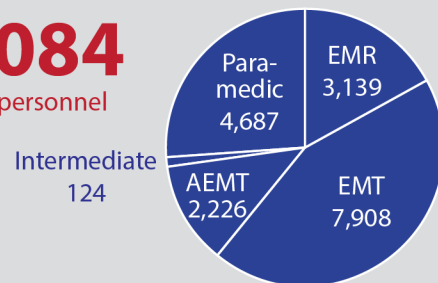

stabilize and transport patients; each license level provides progressively more advanced medical care provides basic lifesaving interventions while waiting for additional EMS resources to arrive

756
services

18,084
licensed personnel

693,754
calls for medical care in 2016

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900
1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900
1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900
1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900	1,900

License Levels and Required Medical Training (hours)

Hours reflect minimum required or suggested and include classroom and clinical hours. All licenses require continuing education for license renewal.

